Ellerbe Fine Foods Named One of the Top 100 American Fare Restaurants in the US by OpenTable Diners

(Fort Worth, TX) --- Richard King, co-owner and general manager of Ellerbe Fine Foods, today announced that Ellerbe has been named a winner of OpenTable Diners' Choice Awards for the top 100 restaurants in the United States that specialize in American food. The list of winners is derived from more than 10 million reviews submitted by OpenTable diners for more than 12,000 restaurants in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

“Crack open Ellerbe Fine Foods, and at our heart beats customer service; we are here to care for one another in unique, memorable, meaningful ways,” said Mr. King. “The fact that this award is a direct result of our guests’ trust and belief in us is the highest honor we could imagine.”

“American cuisine has truly come into its own, thanks in part to these winning chefs and restaurateurs who are elevating our nation's food culture one plate at a time,” said Caroline Potter, OpenTable’s Chief Dining Officer. “Through the use of sustainably sourced ingredients and time-honored and cutting-edge techniques, they’ve made America's foodies feel that there’s no place like home.”

Based on feedback collected from OpenTable diners between November 2010 and October 2011, the 100 award-winning restaurants received the highest scores. For more information about all of the restaurants on this list, please visit <http://www.opentable.com/american>.
